

St Monica's Sixth Form Centre, Prestwich Greater Manchester

A New Build College

Total Cost	Start	Completed
£8M	2012	2013

SECTOR

Education

BOOTH KING ROLE

Civil Structural Engineering

TEAM

Client – St Monica's School
Architect – Cassidy & Ashton

LOCATION

Prestwich, Greater Manchester

PROJECT CONTACT

Ian Entwistle, Director
ian.e@booth-king.co.uk

Project Description

Based in Prestwich in Greater Manchester, St Monica's Sixth Form College is one of the most unique state of the art and modern learning environments in Greater Manchester. This project involved the building of classrooms, IT suites and performance spaces along with Brasserie Monique.

Key Facts

Booth King's role in the project was to provide all civil and structural engineering for the client where possible using resources including timbers from sustainable sources.